

tivities for so long a period makes him an unquestioned authority upon the interpretation of Wagner's works, and peculiarly fits him to conduct a festival wherein that elhe was conductor of Neumann's traveling "Richard Wagner Theater" which carried the "Nibelungen Ring" throughout Europe. The opera houses of Leipzig and Bremen had Seidl at the helm for some time, since when he has been the conductor of the German opera at the Metropolitan Opera House, of New York, where the superb performances of Wagner's works have vied with those to be heard in the most favored European capitals,

... The whole town is beginning to talk May Festival. All indications point to a greater popular success for this week's big event than as yet been reached by anything of the kind in this city. The box sale, which is relied on for $10,000 of the $23,000 being spent on the festival, bids fair to realize about that sum. All but a dozen of the boxes have been sold for the season at $100 apiece; beginning with to-morrow the rest will be on sale for single concerts at $25 acc, fair seasily and are preserved. sing tess with seed sairs), and are pretty sure to be quickly snapped up. The general sale has been really good, in view of the size of the house, which makes people think there will be plenty of room, even if they don't hurry to pre-empt it. They had better see about it to-morrow or Tuesday, however, or be content with the leavings.

ending auditors will do well to remember that the concerts are to begin promptly at 815 and 216 o'clock, respectively, and that the doors will then be closed until some convenient point in the programme for the entrance of late comers. A 15-minute intermission will we the audience an opportunity to rise and croll about socially—an element of no slight aportance to the full enjoyment of the latter act of the necessaries.

aportance to the full enjoyment of the latter art of the programme. The programmes have been sufficiently disussed in this column from a general standoint; they will during the week each be noted a detail in the next preceding issue of THE ISPATCH. Though the selections may not be appearable, such as the true festival standard. ogether such as the true festival standard quires, they most certainly do furnish a list of the distinguished torce, cannot fail to yield treat enjoyment and some profit to everyone who attends. The good things have been distributed among seven concerns with much imartiality; the sheets at the box office show how and it has been for the public to fix upon any se concert as the favorite.

1 ... Schooling once remarked that "All that the Schedulinin once remarked that "All that the artist who works for the church, and has to move within the strict boundaries prescribed by her, loses with regard to success and applause from the great mass, he receives back a hundred fold in another way. To build houses is easy for him who can erect churches; and therefore he who is able to compose an oratorio, will easily win success with smaller forms."

Schumann should have been in Pittsburg last Schumann should have been in Pittsburg last week to see how the oratorio may win, rather than lose, "with regard to success and applause from the great mass"—and that in comparison with works especially chosen along lower lines on purpose to catch applause from the general public. The testimony has been overwhelming that the greater part of the people present enjoyed the Morart Club's "Elijah" more than the Boston Symphony Orchestra's piquant potpourri of modern seensationalism.

Will Mr. Ellis and Mr. Comee please remember this until the next time?

with sir. Eiths and Ar. Comes picase remember this until the next time?

The Mosart Club's triumph last week has set people to thinking. When Georg Henschel asks the privilege of thanking a chorus for the pleasure it has given him; when Wilhelm Gericke, most frigid of men, expresses most cordial praise of its work, and his best orchestral players join heartly in it; when C. C. Mellor, John Q. Everson and Henry Kleber feel moved to write formal letters of congratulation (accompanied in the first case by 200 copies of Mendels sohn's "Hymn of Praise," with score and parts; and in the last by a fat check toward the deficit; and when the unanimous encomiums of critics and audience are added to all this—then it is about time for Pittsburg to realize that it possesses in its Mozart Club a musical treasure such as is rare among the cities of the land.

The result should be a large increase in the associate membership, and, best of all, an endowment fund to enable the unselfish and enthusiastic workers of the club to go ahead with their noble enterprise upon a scale commensurate with the wealth and growing musical taste of the City of Natural Gas.

Crockets and Quavers. MME. EMILIE PERRET, who has studied at the Paris Conservatoire, is the latest accession to this city's list of plane and vocal teachers. THE Haydn Quartet, assisted by Mrs Mattrilde Henkler, Miss Jennie Abbott, Messrs. W. W. Lightbody and Kaufman, gave a con-cert at the U. P. Church, of Verona, last Fri-day evening.

THE Orpheus Society, of Beaver Falls, was announced to give its second concert last Tuesday, with a programme including "The Heavons Are Telling," the "Inflammatus," and several other choruses.

THE concert to be given to-morrow evening at St. Augustine's Hall, Thirty-seventh street, for the benefit of the Young Men's Literary Society, promises a bewildering variety of selections both for the human voice and for all manner of instruments. Mr. G. R. BROADBERRY has resigned his position as organist of the Wilkinsburg Presbyterian Church. The chorus choir of that church has also vacated the organ loft, and a quartet is in process of formation. Mr. Charles I. Wade will be the organist hereafter.

AMONG several typographical errors that crept into THE DISPATCH'S review of the "Elijah" on Thursday morning, the most amusing was the reference to Mr. Zimmerman and Mrs. Henkler as possessing a "high social reputation," where "local reputation" was, of course, intended.

MISS IDA C. BURGY gave a musicale at her residence on Friday evening in which Miss Grace Miller, Miss Helen Zitterbart, Mr. Fidelis Zitterbart, Mr. Harry Hetzel and Mr. J. Jelgerhors assisted. The programme included the E flat concertos of Beethoven and Liszt and a quintet for piano and strings by Mr. F. Zitterbart.

THE Post-a-Post Orchestra on last Monday elected the following officers for the ensuing year: President, Dr. J. S. Walters; Vice Presi dent, H. A. Rogers; Secretary, Thomas R. At-terbury; Treasurer, John Liggett; Business Manager, John B. Bradburn, and—most im-portant of all—Musical Directress, Mrs. Dr. J. S. Walters.

THE Allegheny County Musicians' Union reorganized last Thursday with the following of-ficers: President, J. F. Roenigk; Vice-President, John Gernert: Secretary, A. Gerlach, dent, John Gernert: Secretary, A. Gerlach, Treasurer, J. H. Rottkay. Manynew members were admitted and plans were outlined tending toward higher orchestral work that would be of great public benefit.

LIBERATI, the cornetist and bandmaster, is organizing a band for another summer cam-paign in the West. He has engaged these Pitteburgers: Messra Mueller and Bingham, cornets; Crispini, tambone; Rentz, tubs; Fisher, clarinet; Distz, bassoon, and Gallagher, drum. Is this a bid for an engagement at Pittsburg's possible Exposition next fall?

THE rush of musical events at home should not prevent a word in tribute to the memory of Carl Rosa and of Canon Sir Frederick Arthur Gore Ouseley, Bart., whose recent deaths have beraft England at once of her chief reliance for opera in the vernacular and of her best ex-temporaneous organist. Ouseley was also a composer of much church music of a high order and Professor of Music at Oxford Uni-

MR. AND MRS. ETHELBERT NEVIN are expected to arrive in the city next Thursday, on fits him to conduct a festival wherein that el-ementsolargely predominates. Subsequently a month or two. Mr. Nevin finds himself in a month or two. Mr. Nevin finds himself in need of rest after an exceedingly busy spring, not the least arduous task of which was the rehearsal of almost the whole of Gounod's "Redemption" for Eastertide production by his demption" for Eastertide production by his surpliced choir of 40 voices at Quincy, Mass. A movement for piano, two violins, viola and cello, a suite of dances for piano (four hands) and several songs are among the products of Mr. Nevin's recent activity as a composer, His "sketch book" has been extraordinarily successful, having passed through three editions in less than ten months. Quite a number of the former Pittsburger's songs are to be seen on high class programmes through the country—among them his "Doris," for sogramo solo and orchestra, which the composer will hear for himself at the May Festival matinee next Saturday. next Saturday.

THE LATEST FISH STORY.

Palled in for Brenking the Law-The Finny Spolls Divided Among Officers and Vic-

John W. Hague, fish warden, has made a step toward breaking up the custom of seine fishing in the river in this vicinity. Yesterday afternoon, he received word from one of his agents, stationed above Lock No. 1, in the Monongahela river, that a couple of young men were fishing with dip nets.

Informations were lodged against them beinformations were louged against them be-fore Alderman Cassidy, and Hague and a con-stable started after the fishermen. They were captured in the act of pulling in a net full of fish, and were taken at once to Alderman Cas-sidy's office. The luckless fishermen were George Brockett and James Hall. A nearing was given them and each was fined $55 and costs.

The string of fish they had caught numbered about 25, the weight of the lot being about 40 pounds. The catch was divided between Alderman Cassidy, Hague, the constable and the

The game laws prohibit fishing with seines, nets, killing the fish with explosives, and like methods, and Fish Warden Hague is determined to put a stop to the practice.

LADIES IN ELEVATORS. They Object to Almost Everything the Elevator Man Does. "Please don't run the elevator so awfully fast!" is a remark which can be heard daily by anybody who has occasion to ride in any of the elevators down town. Mr. Hill, the elevator man in the Hamilton building, while making some comments on this remark yesterday, said:

"It is funny, but women are always nervous and fidgety whenever they get into this elevator. I can never run the thing to please them. It is either too fast or else it goes too slow; sometimes I stop too soon and sometimes I don't stop soon enough."
"Well, what is the reason?" somebody incuired.

"Well, what is the reason?" somebody inquired.

"I don't know. Women are naturally more nervous than a man, and I suppose that is the reason. I have had ladies in here who had to hold on to the railings like grim death for fear that they might fall. Others have to sit down on the chair, because they say that the motion of the elevator makes their limbs powerless to stand on."

About the same explanations were made by every elevator may ho was asked on the subject, all agreeing that women are too nervous to stand the motion.

TO ATTEMPT TO MAKE Machinery fit by force is a foolish thing.
Every piece is made to fit exact and don't need to be pounded together. It is equally foolish to attempt to bake fine cakes with inferior baking preparations that won't raise the batter. A poor pancake is a flat failure also, and to insure success in all your baking undertakings we would appear to the part of the control baking undertakings, we would suggest the use of the old reliable "Banner" Baking Powder, which never fails to do its work satisfactorily.

A KANSAS EDITOR. He Comes to Pittsburg to Fight Prohibition

-He Brings Important Figures-What He Tries to Prove. William P. Tomlinson, the editor and proprietor of the Topeka (Kan.) Daily Democrat, is in this city. Mr. Tomlinson, who participated in the recent campaigns in New Hampshire and Massachusetts, speaking and writing against the adoption of the amendment in those States, declared

Granite State.
"In Kansas," continued Mr. Tomlinson,
"There is the same condition of things as in New Hampshire. Prohibition is the same failure in that State it has been in Massa-chusetts, Maine, New Hampshire, and wherever the unfortunate experiment has been attempted. This statement ought not to surprise anyone. Any student of human nature knows that you cannot suddenly change the habits and appetites of men by statutory enactments. Reform can only come through the slow elevation of the standard of public sentiment.

failure, because under so-called prohibition the grand old agency of moral suasion is wholly lost sight of. A temperance meeting of the old-fashioned sort in Kansas would be a novelty. There is no such thing. The order of Good Templars, once so powerful in Kansas, is a thing of the past. I am confident there is not as healthful a temperance sentiment in Kansas to-day as there was ten years ago before the adoption of the amend-ment. A false standard has been erected. Prohibition in Kansas does not mean sobriety or temperance. It means simply opposition to the open saloon. A man in Kansas may be a model Prohibition-ist, yet be full of whisky from Monday morning till Saturday night. In fact, our prohibitory laws in Kansas are made by men of notoriously intemperate habits.

"Yet," said Mr. Tomlinson, "while prohibitory laws of the most sweeping character are on the statute book, while the courts are literally choked with liquor cases, heapare merally choken with liquor cases, heap-ing costs upon the taxpayers, making the average tax levy as high as $40 and $50 for every thousand dollars of valuation in the larger cities of Kansas, the liquor traffic goes on in the principal cities in that State with scarcely any pretense of concealment. Topeka is quoted by prohibition orators as a city in which 'prohibition strictly prohibits;' yet I have evidence which shows that the grand jury for the District Court of Shawnee county only two or three week's April last over 30 cases of drunkenness ap-pear on the docket of the Police Court of that city. that city.

"I can show further, over the seal of the United States Internal Revenue Collector (N. F. Acers, Leavenworth, Kan.,) that 1,103 more retail liquor permits were issued from that office during the past year, under so-called prohibition, than during 1881, the last year under the old license law. This shows conclusively that there are alternative. shows conclusively that there are a thousand more drinking places in Kansas at the pres-ent time than there were under the license law. I can show by unchallenged evidence that there are to-day between 200 and 300 drinking places in one city in Kansas." ROYAL awnings, extra heavy, at Mamaux & Son's, 537 and 539 Penn ave.

TOR SALE—THOUGHTFUL PERSONS IN buying a home will take into account the surroundings and probabilities of enhancement of value; convenience to good improvements is a leading consideration; also rapid transit to and from the business part of the city; the quality of the houses in the neighborhood goes for a good deal; as to build or buy a handsome stone or brick residence and have interior houses go up afterward on adjoining lots detracts from the value of the first; to buy on a neadly paved street, with sowers, gas and water already laid, is important; one then knows what the whole cost is, and has not to worry about the cost of future grading and paving. All these items and many more are covered at the handsome new dwellings on Carkiand Square (formerly Linden Grove), which need only be seen to be appreciated. The price is $4,500 and and $6,70, payable on easy terms, for elegant, thoroughly well built and commodious houses, standing apart, on lots 30x100, and fitted with all the modern conveniences. All the houses tront on appraciated, and upon a handsome park planted with shade trees; old forest trees pientifully shade the neighborhood. The cable cars are now but six minutes' distant, and will be brought still nearer. These hones are rapidly selling, being pronounced bargains at present prices. Apply 100 SAMUEL W.
